Folks, you're going to want to shop in Dracut for the month of November. Dracut Economic Development will make it worth your while. The "Make It Dracut for the Holidays" contest runs November 1-30. It's simple – all you have to do is visit participating Dracut retail merchants -- and you could win one of four gift cards to the Dracut business(es) of your choice, including a $500 first prize. Visit www.makeitdracut.org/holidays for the rules and a list of the nearly 200 participating stores and restaurants.

DRACUT CULTURAL COUNCIL

Finding Frosties

A Dracut Holiday Arts Project & Scavenger Hunt

The Frosties will be displayed at Town Hall from December 3rd – 10th. After the Holiday Drive Thru on December 10th, the snowpeople will be moved to various locations around Dracut where people can park their car and enjoy seeing them up close.

The scavenger hunt will take place from December 11th thru January 7th. Watch the Dracut Cultural Council facebook page from December 11th for the scavenger hunt questions and a form to vote for your favorite Frosty!

The Dracut Cultural Council is a local agency which is supported by the Mass Cultural Council, a state agency.
